WHAT THE COUNCIL DID

The city council last night:

Passed cold storage ordinance.

Passed ordinance requiring horse vehicles as well as autos to stop behind standing street cars.

Declared Columbus Day, Oct. 12, legal holiday.

Set October 15 as tag day.

Set next meeting of council for next Monday afternoon at 2.

Cold storage ordinance now up to Harrison. Will require that all foods be tagged with date when put in cold storage.

Also provides that no foods, except nuts, fruits, cheese and vegetables shall be kept in storage longer than 10 months.

That butter products cannot be kept in storage longer than one year.

That fish shall not be kept in storage longer than 6 months.

THE DYNAMITE CASE

Indianapolis, Oct. 8.—District Attorney Miller took up New England dynamitings today.

Said Michael Young and F. J. Higgins, of Boston, went with McManigal to Springfield, Mass., April 16, 1911, on which date new town tower was blown up.

Said Young and Higgins then went to Hartford, Conn., and wrote John J. McNamara they had been there one week, thus laying foundation of alibi.

More than 50 hotel clerks and bellboys in Indianapolis today. Expect to be first witnesses called when opening statements are through and trial begins.

THE BECKER CASE

New York, Oct. 8.—The selection of the Becker jury is being were five men in the box this afternoon. They were:

Harold B. Skinner, foreman, 35, manager N. Y. branch Edison Co.; Robert Purcell, 37, chemist; John B. Hardy, 56, retired business man; Edward C. Soule, 44, auditor; Wm. F. Ward, 50, woolen merchant.

Becker takes the keenest interest in the selection of the jury. He says he wants young married men. Becker's wife is in courtroom.
